

MY DAY in Romans

SHOPPING AND EXPERTISE!

MY DAY in Romans

With a rich history of leatherworking and shoemaking, for decades, Romans has enjoyed a prestigious reputation for craftsmanship well beyond national borders.

Discover the best addresses in the city for shopping and the “romanaïis” artisanal “know-how” in a unique setting.

The day will also be an opportunity to discover the rich and varied architectural heritage : the Jacquemart Tower, the House of Sheep...

Between heritage and modernity, the Shoe Capital offers you a unique cultural, commercial and artisanal vitality to consume without moderation!

Romans at my own pace

Discover Romans at your own pace with:

- An offer “à la carte”, so you can visit our iconic tourist sites as you wish.
- An itinerary, chosen from three specially designed just for you!

For all bookings, a gift will be given to you at the sites you visit (except for creative artisans and heritage sites).

Cité de la Raviole

DISCOVERING THE “RAVIOLE”, FROM FIELD TO PLATE

The “Cité de la Raviole Mère Maury” invites you to discover its museum space dedicated to the emblematic gastronomic speciality of the Drôme region: the Dauphiné raviole!

An interactive exhibition space for young and old invites you to discover the origins and history, ingredients, original recipe and steps for making the famous raviole, as well as the gastronomic uses and culinary advice to fully indulge in the pleasure of tasting it, where all your senses will be awakened!

A store, at factory prices, will allow you to extend the treat to your home.

Cité de la Chaussure

A UNIQUE SITE IN FRANCE!

As the historical capital of shoes, Romans shone throughout the world for several decades. Since 2010, new artisanal workshops set up in the city have revitalised this activity.

A strong symbol of this renewal, under one roof, the “Cité de la Chaussure” offers shoe manufacturing workshops, a boutique selling shoes entirely made in Romans, and a guided tour of the workshops.

Come discover the secrets of shoemaking – offered in several languages – alone, in a family or in a group!

Useful information

From Monday to Saturday:

10:00-19:00

Closed on Sundays.
