Hiking trail: from Lindarets Village to Brochaux Waterfall

Easy | 2h | 4.2km | Round trip | +300m | +300m

An easy hike from Les Lindarets, known for its goats and traditional architecture, to the magnificent Cascade des Brochaux.
The path winds through the woods and you are lulled by the soothing murmur of a pretty river.

Guided steps

Beige panels with black lettering and green arrows

> From the village of Les Lindarets,

1/ Follow the paved road towards the ski resort.

2/ Turn left onto Route des Lindarets, pass the upper station of the Ardent cable car and continue to the 'Les Barnettes' sign in front of the 'Les Alpages' restaurant.

3/ At Les Barnettes, take the path on the right above the restaurant 'Les Alpages' and follow the direction indicated by the signpost 'Les Brochaux'. Follow the path below the Léchère chairlift, along the river. The path climbs gently but steadily, sometimes through the forest, sometimes through a clearing.

4/ Stay on the right side of the river until you reach the entrance to the forest to reach the village of Les Brochaux and then the waterfall.

5/ At Les Brochaux, cross the bridge to reach the waterfall, which is already in sight.

6/ Arrival at the Cascade des Brochaux.

> Return via the same route.
