1 CASTLE OF LARNAGE : Make a stop at these castle ruins, off the beaten track, in the middle of vines, offering an ideal place to enjoy the surroundings.

2 PIERRE AIGUILLE VIEWPOINT : Dare to climb the ridge and take off to fly over the Rhône Valley (viewpoint for migrating birds).

3 HERMITAGE CHAPEL AND HILLSIDE : The road turns into a path then what a surprise, when you come to a narrow passage between 2 walls and discover a cute, tiny chapel overlooking the King of Rivers.

PICNIC CORNER : On the edge of a vineyard, on the hill going up to Gervans, what better place for lunch overlooking the Rhône river.

A LITTLE BONUS

Why 3 viewpoints ?
Simply because not one offers the same view over the river. And you, which one do you prefer ?
