

Hiking to Pointe d'Ireuse

Hard
 7h

 14.56km

 Round trip

 +1008m

 +1008m

Set off on an adventure as you climb the Pointe d'Ireuse, an iconic summit that offers a 360° panorama, taking in the majestic Mont Blanc, the impressive Dents du Midi, unmissable Lake Geneva and the superb Chablais mountains.

Guided steps

The trail is fully signposted. You'll follow beige directional signs indicating the route times. You can also rely on the yellow arrows on a green background to guide you.

> Leave from the "Les Frélois" car park.

1/ Follow the signs to Les Chalets de Seytrouset (2h). Follow the forest track to Seytrouset. Make sure you stay on the forest track at all times, despite the small paths that branch off to the left and right here and there.

2/ From the "La Chette" sign, continue on the forest track towards Seytrouset.

3/ Once you reach Seytrouset, turn left towards the Col de Seytrouset.

4/ From the Col de Seytrouset, turn right towards Niffion d'en Haut.

5/ From Niffion d'en Haut, turn right towards the Pointe d'Ireuse.

6/ At the Pointe d'Ireuse, after enjoying the view, turn back towards the Chalets de Niffion d'en Haut. Then follow the signs for Col de Seytrouset, Seytrouset and back down the forest track you came by.

 Parking "Les Frélois", VC N°4 de la Baume À Urine, Au-dessus de "La Goutreuse d'en haut", 74430, La Baume

<https://explore.valleedaulps.com/en/routes/hiking-to-pointe-direuse>

 Carte  GPX

Read more...

This route, accessible to experienced hikers, takes you through the peaceful mountain pastures of Seytrouset and Niffon d'en Haut. These authentic places, untouched by time, exude a unique atmosphere of calm, wild nature and sublime scenery. Every step you take in these mountain pastures plunges you a little deeper into a world of serenity, where the beauty of the mountains invites you to contemplate and recharge your batteries.

