JULY 2025

SAINT-TROPEZ

THE STORY

My grandfather's journey from the French army to the Royal Air force led him to discover the enchanting village of Saint Tropez during his military training where his heart remained, and he vowed to return if he were to survive the war. After World War II, he fulfilled his promise by coming back to Saint-Tropez in the 1960s to establish his life there. The 1970s marked the beginning of an era when he acquired a residence in Les Parcs and started hosting a legendary party known as 'The Gypsy Party'.

The unique aspect of 'The Gypsy Party' was its inclusivity; at midnight, the doors opened to anyone, regardless of their socioeconomic background. At its peak, it welcomed up to 2000 guests, and the Gipsy Kings, his house band whom were relatively unknown at the time became synonymous with these gatherings, gaining exposure and popularity. This tradition continued for over 45 years, ending in 2016 when my grandfather, at 96 years old, decided it was time to retire the Gypsy Party.

THE STORY

In 2021, I had the honor of hosting my inaugural event, a symbolic revival of my grandfather's legacy and continuation of my families traditions. By 2023, our gathering had grown to over 1200 attendees, with more than 2000 requests awaiting guest list approval to join, all of whom's contact information we have retained. Fueled by a desire for a more meaningful impact, in 2024, I embarked on a journey to create a new concept. The event is confirmed for summer 2024, and it will bear my mother's name, honoring her pivotal role in my life and her introduction to house music. The vision behind 'Isabelle' is to establish an annual event in a village integral to my family's history that will combine music and charitable causes to protect our oceans.

Regrettably, my mother won't be there to witness the completion of this project. In her final moments, she had achieved a lifelong academic milestone - completing a 194-page thesis for her master's degree on the 'Autecology, Management, and Conservation of Sharks in the French West Indies,' with plans to pursue a Ph.D. She was an extraordinary, generous, and loving individual, and it is only fitting that a portion of the event's proceeds will honor the cause she held dear.

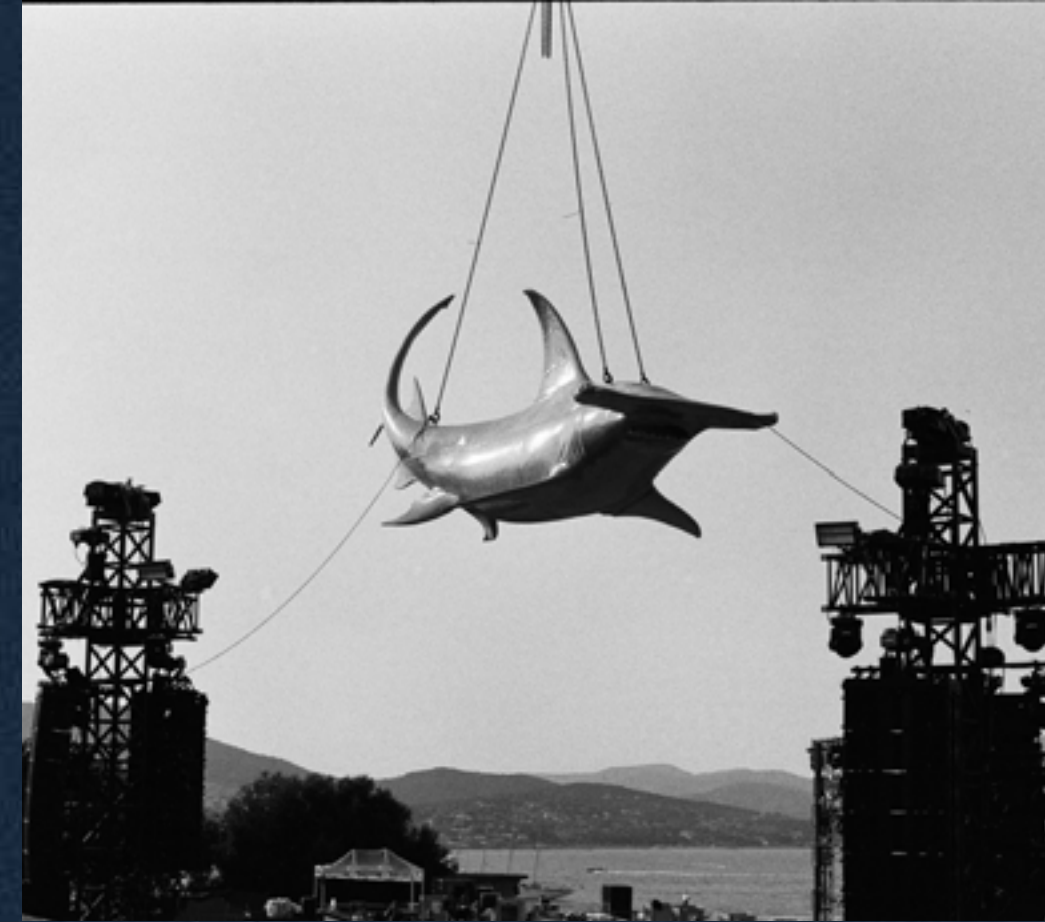

A DJ, seen from behind, is performing at a festival. They are wearing a black suit and a black fedora-style hat. In front of them is a DJ setup including a laptop displaying a colorful waveform, a small keyboard, and various cables. The background is filled with a large, diverse crowd of people, many of whom are wearing white t-shirts and sunglasses. Some people are holding up their phones to take pictures. The setting is outdoors at dusk or dawn, with a body of water and distant mountains visible in the background. A tall light tower with red lights is also visible. The word "ISABELLE" is overlaid in the center of the image.

ISABELLE 2025

Following the immense success of Isabelle 2024, this year continues on, staying true to the heart of what the festival is all about.

In 2025, the lineup is of the same incredible calibre as last year - if not higher. Ahmed Spins and Marco Carola are making a return as well as Hi Ibiza's new Friday resident Joseph Capriati.

A wide-angle photograph of a large crowd at a night festival. In the center, a large, realistic-looking shark is suspended in the air by cables. The scene is illuminated by bright stage lights, including several powerful spotlights that create beams of light across the dark sky. On the left, there are trees lit up with blue and orange lights. In the background, a body of water reflects the city lights across the way. A crane arm with the brand name 'MEDIZCO' is visible in the upper right corner. The overall atmosphere is festive and high-energy.
