

Hiking to Col Ratti

Medium
🕒 3h
↔ 8km
↔ Round trip
📈 +462m
📉 +462m

A out-and-back hike to Col Ratti, at the foot of the majestic and steep Roc d'Enfer, offering superb panoramic views of the Mont-Blanc chain, the Aravis peaks, the Dents du Midi and the Dents Blanches.

Must see / Must-Haves

From early June to mid-September, from 5pm to 6pm, you can watch cows being milked free of charge at the Caly farm in the hamlet of en l'Aup. 24-hour vending machine for farm produce at the shepherd's cottage.

Guided steps

Beige panels with black lettering and green arrows

> Departure from the Col de l'Encrenaz car park.

1/ Take the path that branches off to the right behind the Ancrenaz Bar, heading towards the Col de la Basse.

2/ 100 metres further on, at the signpost for 'l'Encrenaz'. Continue to follow the 'Col de la Basse.

3/ At the hamlet of en l'Aup, stay on the path that crosses the hamlet and continue to the Col de la Basse.

4/ At Col de la Basse, continue on the path on the left, which climbs straight up through the mountain pasture until you reach Col Ratti.

5/ Once at Col Ratti, take the same path back. Follow the signs for Col de la Basse, then Col de l'Encrenaz.

📍 Col de l'Encrenaz, 74110, La Côte-d'Arbroz

🗺 Map: IGN Top 25, 3528 ET, Morzine

€ Free access.

<https://explore.valleedaulps.com/en/routes/hiking-to-col-ratti>

📍 Carte ⬇️ GPX

Read more...

The path climbs up through the alpine pastures where Abondance cows graze, and with a bit of luck you can spot chamois frolicking on the foothills of Roc d'Enfer.

