PLACE DE LA CASTRE & MUSÉE DES EXPLORATIONS DU MONDE COURTYARD

Sitting at the top of Le Suquet, Place de la Castre and the Musée des explorations du monde courtyard provide a sensational setting for equally sensational events. The national heritage site lies in what was once the Lérins monastery's medieval castle, with staggering panoramic views of the Bay of Cannes, La Croisette and the Lérins islands.

Place de la Castre is surrounded by the clock tower, Sainte-Anne chapel and Notre-Dame d'Espérance church, with two points of entry and a large space to host your private events. The lush Mediterranean grounds and the museum's original courtyard create a magical and unspoilt setting. The museum's collections give your events a unique cultural dimension, making it the perfect place to host private functions.
