550€ full day 8h, incl. 250 km, for 1 to 4 people

Cultivated in Roman times to perfume baths and linen, lavender first appeared in Provence in the Middle Ages for its olfactory and medicinal virtues. Lavender cultivation began to develop in the 19th century. Perfumeries in Grasse used fine lavender essential oil to make their elixirs. The lavender roads of the Luberon are a delight for lovers of color and flavor. Perched villages, medieval castles, abbeys & monasteries, vineyards, Roussillon ochres and breathtaking landscapes punctuate the visit. As for lavender, numerous fields, distilleries and museums reveal the secrets of essential oils and the virtues of lavender. It is on blossom from late June to August 15, when Sault celebrates the harvest.

TOUR 6 - AUTHENTIC & EXCLUSIVE IMMERSION WITH A WINEMAKER

350€, 9:30-1:30pm, 4h, incl. 50km for 1 to 2 people, 75€ per add. Person

Immersive visit and blending and tasting workshop at Domaine Saint-Pierre d'Escarvaillac. Ten kilometers from the ramparts of Avignon, tucked away in a nook and cranny on the edge of the deep suburbs, Domaine Saint-Pierre d'Escarvaillac, which converted to organic farming in 2018, has 700 years of history and is not just about wine: it also produces fruit, olive oil, weddings, concerts, exhibitions and... a thriving biodiversity. Accompanied by a member of the team, and with a healthy dose of humour and poetry, this immersive tour of the mixed farming/eco-grazing plots and buildings dating from the 14th to 18th centuries will reveal the secrets of creating an organic wine with character, in stone vats dating from the late Middle Ages, at the crossroads of a host of surprisingly modern issues. Main themes: Vineyard plots (and others) in the age of global warming -- The impact of the estate's history on cultivation and cultural practices -- The grape's journey from vine to glass -- Behind the scenes of the organic winemaker's craft -- An introduction to blending a cuvée. Discover the main site around the château: the Durançole canal (1226) and eco-pasture fruit plots; the "little jungle" and the frugal habitat; light irrigation practices; organic aromatic plots on regenerated land (mulching, grazing, sorghum); discover the estate's soils and grape varieties; the problems of global warming and frugal solutions (drip irrigation, mixed farming, tolerance of grass cover, etc.). Discover the buildings and their uses, past and present: the old inn on the road to Santiago de Compostela, now a winegrower's home; the old chapel, now a tractor shed; the 200 m² former cowshed, now a wedding hall; the former refectory of the Carthusian monks of Bonpas, now a tasting room; the 200 m² former barn, now a concert hall; the old stone vats dug into the rock, still in use today; the cellar and winemaking equipment; the reception areas for the seasonal teams. An introduction to wine tasting and a workshop to create a cuvée using our bulk stocks: visitors can make their own wine in the Grande Cuisine des Chartreux, well chilled in high season or by the fireside in low season. All that's left to do is savor it with a tasty packed lunch of produce from the estate or neighbouring producers between 12.30 and 1.30 pm.

Visit available in French, English, German, Spanish, Italian.

General conditions: Non-refundable rates. Full payment on reservation. Excluded: meals, parking fees, entrance fees to monuments and other activity fees. Extras: +100€ per additional hour started / +25€ for flexible departure times to suit your wishes

TOUR 12 – PONT DU GARD BY NIGHT AND LIGHT SHOW

300€ - 6:30-11:30pm, 4-5h, incl. 100km. for 1 to 4 people

Built around 50 CE, during the reigns of the emperors Claudius and Nero, the aqueduct of which the Pont du Gard is a part, supplied the city of Nîmes with large quantities of pressurized water for over five centuries. Walking tour of 1h and picnic at Pont du Gard or have a dinner in a restaurant nearby. At 10:30 pm, once daylight has completely faded, the famous 20-minute son & lumière will start.

The Pont du Gard sound and light show is a must-see evening event in summer. An enchanting and poetic interlude to round off your day at the Pont du Gard. The highest Roman bridge in the world is transformed into a 260-metre-long screen, featuring a succession of beautiful visual tableaux that bring to life a magical tale, an odyssey through time, thanks to videomapping and drones.

The show invites spectators to (re)discover the wonders of the living world that inhabit the Gorges du Gardon, through its characteristic flora and fauna. A soundtrack written by Scott Gibbons has been created especially for the show, using elements of the valley's biodiversity (fauna, flora, natural elements of the site).

General conditions: Non-refundable rates. Full payment on reservation. Excluded: meals, parking fees, entrance fees to monuments and other activity fees. Extras: +100€ per additional hour started / +25€ for flexible departure times to suit your wishes
